

Dear Restaurant Owner,

My name is Joseph Bonaminio and I would like to introduce myself and our companies Net Persuasion and Websites To Order™. We have a niche for developing effective websites for restaurants and caterers. Some of our satisfied clients include: Davenport's Restaurant, Blaze East Side and Rodizio Steakhouse to name a few.

Our proven process features our exclusive Slice & Dice™ Content Management System. This system allows you to take control of your website like never before. Just log-in and update. It's that easy.

Our exclusive CMS (Content Management System) allows you to:

- Change Menu Items
- Sell Gift Certificates
- Take Online Reservations
- Book Parties & Events
- Provide Maps & Directions
- Send Weekly Specials to Subscribers
- Display Video Tours & Photo Galleries

Let us build you a website that's less like an online brochure and more like a database driven marketing tool for your business.

Start turning more tables with a website from Net Persuasion / Websites To Order™. It's not just about having any website, It's about having the right website for your business.

Call us today for a free on-site consultation and full demonstration of how we have helped other restaurant business owners like yourself.

Call me direct at 401-556-8370 or visit us online at www.NetPersuasion.com

Thank you for any consideration,

Joseph Bonaminio
